

As part of the Talk Series on INTERNATIONAL CAREERS

at UCF in Winter semester 2018-19,
the Major Governance presents a Guest Talk

by Marc Sievers, Head of Unit, Directorate General “Communication” at the European Commission.

What does a career at the European Commission look like?

Marc Sievers will share his experiences
at his Alma Mater and answer questions.

Mr. Sievers has been working at the European Commission since 2003. His career at the EC started at the Directorate General “Informatics”; in 2009
he joined the Directorate General “Communication”.

Before starting at the European Commission, he held various positions in American, Canadian and Finnish companies, including Sonera SmartTrust, Accelio and Adobe, and worked for the German Federal Ministry for Research and Technology. His professional path started in Freiburg and Münster, where he studied law and history.

Tuesday, December 4, 18:30 – 20:30
KG III, room 3118

Other talks in the series:

Dr. Otto Lampe, former German Ambassador to Switzerland, November 5, 2018, 10:00-12:00

Edouard Huot, Embassy of Canada in Berlin, Tuesday, January 15, 2019, 18:30-20:30, KG III 3118

Tbc, European Court of Justice, February 2019, tba