

What Constitutes "Law" in Africa?

Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg

UNI
FREIBURG

Es wird herzlich eingeladen zu einem
Vortrag von

Prof. Raymond A. Atuguba und
Dr. Sena Dei-Tutu
(University of Ghana School of Law)

In this talk, the speakers will illustrate the distinctiveness of Legal Pluralism in Africa and derive from this some three levels and ten types of African Law. By analyzing the causes, history, and practical effects of Legal Pluralism, they aim to strip African Law of its unenviable ethos of obscurity, density, and multiplex complexities, and lay bear its fundamental constituent elements, an enterprise that is useful for anyone interesting in, working in, or working on Africa.

Der Vortrag findet statt am Dienstag, den 22.10.2019, 18.00 Uhr s.t., in Hörsaal 1009.

gez. Prof. Dr. Boris P. Paal, M.Jur. (Oxford)