The Institute for Public International Law (Prof. Dr. Silja Vöneky) is seeking to appoint one or more

Research Assistant(s) (m/f/d) one 75 % position or one 25% and one 50% position from July, 15th 2022 or later for the Excellence Cluster project "Ethical, Legal and Social Aspects of Signalling Research" (Centre for Biological Signalling Studies (CIBSS)).

The position offers the opportunity for research at the interface of law and science, such as the regulation of responsible science and the application of new techniques of biotechnology (biotechnology law at the interface of public national law, EU law, public international law and comparative law). The project's objective is to analyse the legitimate foundations of biotechnology law from a legal and human rights perspective and, in a second step, to develop concepts for a new/future legal framework.

The position offers an excellent opportunity to pursue a doctoral research project and to write a dissertation.

We are pleased to receive your application if you meet the following requirements:

- German state examination in law (Staatsexamen, with distinction) or an equivalent foreign legal qualification
- Very good command of at least one foreign language
- Willingness to and pleasure in interdisciplinary work.

Command of EU law and public international law and/or philosophy of law are an advantage.

Further information is provided at <https://www.cibss.uni-freiburg.de/research/project/projects-details/voeney-elsa> and <https://www.jura.uni-freiburg.de/de/institute/ioeffr2/forschung-1/responsible-science-and-technology>.

The University and the Institute aim to increase the proportion of female employees and therefore encourage suitably qualified women to apply. Persons with severe disabilities will receive a preferential treatment if other qualifications are the same.

We are looking forward to your application! Please send your electronic application and the usual information and documents (CV, etc.) to silja.voeney@jura.uni-freiburg.de and voelkerrecht@jura.uni-freiburg.de by July, 5th 2022 at the latest.
