CHOOSE UCONN LAW AND THE LLM PROGRAM THAT IS RIGHT FOR YOU.

The University of Connecticut School of Law offers four LLM (Master of Laws) degrees and more than 125 courses, allowing students to build expertise while creating a global network for a flourishing legal career.

- Energy & Environmental Law
- Human Rights & Social Justice
- Insurance Law
- U.S. Legal Studies

“

The fact that the LLM program allowed us to be integrated with the U.S. law students and the small group classes made learning more real and enjoyable,

Adma Moura, LLM '15

BUILDING EXPERTISE

- Enjoy individual attention in small classes supported by an overall 4:1 student/faculty ratio.
- Choose among ten certificates to customize your education and specialize in your career.
- Gain unique experience with one of 16 clinical opportunities.

MAKING CONNECTIONS

- Find friends and future colleagues among 48 student organizations.
- Network with UConn Law alumni and meet practicing lawyers at events on and off campus.
- Study with students from 25 countries.

ADVANCING CAREERS

- Work with a designated LLM career counselor to apply for an LLM post-graduate fellowship.

“

After meeting the Dean and Director of the Insurance Law Center, I applied to the Insurance LLM at the earliest opportunity because it was clear that the knowledge, skills and connections would advance my career in the industry. ”

Adrian Burgos, LLM '16

ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

Develop expertise and address complex challenges in global and U.S. energy and environmental law. Combine coursework with field placements, individual projects or written scholarship to explore emerging issues in a wide range of areas, including climate change, land use and renewable energy.

HUMAN RIGHTS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

Gain expertise in the international and domestic aspects of social justice lawyering with in-depth study of international human rights and the U.S. civil rights movement.

Join the growing trend of integrating international and domestic human rights into the realms of business, non-profit agencies and public policy.

INSURANCE LAW

Develop mastery of insurance and financial services law at the oldest and most sophisticated program in the country.

Study with experts in Hartford, the insurance capital of the United States, and draw on the resources of the law school's Insurance Law Center, the premier academic center for insurance law and risk regulation.

U.S. LEGAL STUDIES

Add value to a foreign law degree by developing U.S. legal expertise in small classes with American law students.

Enhance your career options and prepare for global practice with a flexible program of study and individualized attention.

“

My degree has opened so many avenues for me to explore in accessing both private- and public-sector job opportunities,

Paschaline Nsiah-Asare, LLM '17
